

KALMANOVITZ
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

April 5, 2014

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter in strong support for Stephanie Dib. I served as Stephanie's professor for two classes at Saint Mary's College of California. These courses included the Curriculum and Instruction: Science (spring 2014) and the Learning and Development in a Multi-Cultural Society (summer 2013).

Academically, Stephanie is an outstanding and articulate student. She produces excellent quality work in all her assignments and contributes valuable insights to classroom discussions. Instructionally, Stephanie focuses on planning lessons that enable students to construct their own knowledge as well as make connections across the curriculum. I am proud of Stephanie and the deep thinking she has brought to her coursework and teaching.

Stephanie is extremely dedicated to the field of education and has made a commitment to being an effective educator with her first-rate qualities. Stephanie is collaborative, responsible, professional, and reflective as a teacher and learner. I believe Stephanie will achieve outstanding success in the classroom!

I give Stephanie Dib my highest recommendation to the teaching profession and feel that her enthusiasm and leadership will be a positive asset to any school environment. If any additional information is needed, please contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Susan H. Marston".

Susan H. Marston
Professor
Kalmanovitz School of Education
Multiple Subject Program
(925) 631-6284
smarston@stmarys-ca.edu